

PROVERBS 3:5-6

The majority of Proverbs was written by King Solomon.

Proverbs, Psalms, and Song of Songs are instructive wisdom literature. They contrast with Job and Ecclesiastes which are reflective wisdom literature.

Proverbs was written so that we could have _____.
 Wisdom begins with a _____ of the Lord
 (Proverbs 1:1-7).

In Proverbs 3:1-12, the odd verses (1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11) describe a wise command and the even verses (2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12) describe the result of following that command.

Mis-Interpreting Proverbs 3:5-6

- If you trust in God, your life will go exactly like you _____.
- If your life is not going exactly like you planned, you don't have enough _____.
- If your life is not going exactly like you planned, God has _____ you.
- _____ acknowledgments to God are sufficient.
- You should not make any decisions without receiving a _____ from the Lord.

Rightly Interpreting Proverbs 3:5-6

- Trusting in the Lord involves _____ his Word and _____ his Word (1-2).
- Trusting in the Lord involves _____ your life on his character (3-4).
 - Exodus 34:6, Jeremiah 31:33
- Trusting in the Lord involves _____ on him for wisdom (5-6).
- Trusting in the Lord involves _____ from evil (7-8).
- Trusting in the Lord involves _____ him with your finances (9-10).
- Trusting in the Lord involves _____ his discipline (11-12).