

LUKE 2:1-21

Matthew, Mark, and Luke are known as the “synoptic” gospels because they “see” the story of Jesus “together.”

Luke is the only gospel that includes the story of Zechariah, Elizabeth, and the birth of John the Baptist (Luke 1).

Luke tells us the story of Jesus’ birth from the perspective of _____.

Luke includes many songs that are connected to the birth of Christ:
Mary (Luke 1:46-56); Zechariah (Luke 1:67-69);
Angels (Luke 2:13-14); Simeon (Luke 2:29-32).

Jesus is the _____, and he was born to bring _____ of _____.

We find great joy in knowing God was _____ over the birth of the Savior (Luke 2:1-7).

- God ordained _____ Christ came into the world.
- God ordained _____ Christ came into the world.
- God ordained _____ Christ came into the world.

We find great joy in knowing that God’s _____ was displayed in the birth of the Savior (Luke 2:8-14).

- God’s glory was proclaimed by _____.
- God’s glory was displayed in _____.
- God’s glory is displayed through _____.

We find great joy when we _____ the Savior and _____ the good news to others. (Luke 2:15-21)

- God calls us to _____ the Savior.
- God calls us to _____ the good news.
- God calls us to _____ the good news.