

HEBREWS 2:10-18

Among Bible scholars, there is great debate about the authorship of Hebrews. The most likely candidate is _____.

- The majority of the early church fathers favored Paul.
- The reference to Timothy suggests Paul (Hebrews 13:23).
- The letter reads like one of Paul's "synagogue sermons."

The book of Hebrews answers three questions:

- _____ is Jesus?
- _____ was he born?
- _____ should we respond?

Jesus is the God-_____, and he was born to _____ his people.

According to Hebrews 2:10-18, who is Jesus?

- Jesus is the _____ (Hebrews 2:10).
- Jesus is the _____ of Old Testament Scripture (Hebrews 2:12-13).
- Jesus is truly _____ (Hebrews 2:14, 2:17).
- Jesus is our Great _____ (Hebrews 2:17).
- Jesus was _____, he _____, and he _____ (Hebrews 2:10, 2:14, 2:18).

According to Hebrews 2:10-18, why was Jesus born?

- Jesus was born to _____ us and _____ us (Hebrews 2:10-11).
- Jesus was born to destroy the _____ (Hebrews 2:14).
- Jesus was born to _____ us from bondage (Hebrews 2:15).
- Jesus was born to _____ the Father's wrath (Hebrews 2:17).
- Jesus was born to help us in _____ (Hebrews 2:18).
