

THE TRUTH: KNOW, BELIEVE, SHARE, DEFEND

How can I intentionally start a gospel conversation?

And he said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." (Luke 10:2)

"There are more young adults open to the gospel than Christians willing to share it. The problem isn't the harvest, it's our lack of laborers." (Paul Worcester)

How can I intentionally start a gospel conversation?

- S _____ the conversation.
  - What's your name? Where are you from? How long have you lived in Odessa? What do you do for work? What do you like most about your job? What do you usually like to do when you're not working? Tried any good restaurants lately?

- A _____ a transitional question. Ask an open-ended and designed to create discussion about spiritual matters.
  - Ask about jewelry, clothing, tattoos, or anything spiritual they mention at any point. Do you go to church anywhere? What did your faith background look like growing up? Are you pretty religious or not really? Do you like deep questions? Do you mind if I ask you a deep question? Scale 1-10?

- L _____ to what they have to say.

- T _____ the conversation to the gospel.
  - God is Holy! Man is sinful! Jesus is the answer! Repent and believe!
